VOCATION REFLECTIONS

JULY 6TH – 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.” In the secular world, the priesthood and religious life is not often viewed as a life of freedom – obedience, celibacy and poverty are not virtues most commonly associated with one that possesses a light burden in their life. However, as Christ reminds us in the Gospel today, He is the one that takes the burden upon Himself. The life of service that the priest and religious enter allows them to be free from the true burdens that are experienced in life—burdens such as arrogance, lust and greed. When the promises or vows of poverty, chastity and obedience are made, the priest or religious free themselves to be true servants of God and His Church. Are you willing to let go of these worldly burdens and take the steps necessary to be one of those who answers Christ’s call to the priesthood or religious life? If so, you may have a vocation. Pray for the strength Christ gives and contact the Vocation Office at 973-497-4365 or email kellybar@rcan.org.

Once again, a huge “thank you” to all our generous contributors to the new Youth Room which will be opening in the former St. Andrew School in Sept or Oct. We are still accepting you kind donations to help pay for our air conditioning / heating system. Also, if anyone has a smaller sized couch and chairs they wish to part with, we would be happy to receive them. Due to your generosity, we have the potential to make this the best youth center in all of Bayonne.
